

dsgd 104 object examples

Introduction to Graphic Design, Fall 2009

These examples indicate the type of objects to look for and to experiment with, but are not to be seen as an exhaustive representation of allowable variations. The photos here are provided to help you understand what actual objects to acquire, and are not for use as drawing references—bring your objects to class for reference.

adjustable wrench

clothespin (wooden with spring)

tomatillo

yo-yo (without type or other graphic)

